Verse

The sound of your voice echoes in my head
I still smell your scent all over my bed
It feels so wrong to be leaving you
But it feels so good to be starting new

If I look back I might slip away
I got to move on to a better day
To find myself living in a better way
No use in me seeing your face

Chorus

I'm tired of wasting my time and my energy
On something that's not giving much to me
Gotta go gotta leave this ain't where I want to be...be...be

I'm tired of wasting my time and my energy
On something that's not giving much to me
Gotta go gotta leave this ain't where I want to be...be...be Cause

Bridge

Soon you'll realize that you had a good thing
Soon you'll realize that you had a good thing
You could have kept it (up)
But you just messed it up...up...up

Ooh no girl
Ooh yeah
I don't want to be here
Not giving much to me....girl

Chorus

I'm tired of wasting my time and my energy
On something that's not giving much to me
Got to go got to leave this ain't where I want to be...be...be

I'm tired of wasting my time and my energy
On something that's not giving much to me
Got to go got to leave this ain't where I want to be...be...be
